HOTEL ROOMING LIST DIRECTIONS

- 1. List Hotel of Preference: We do our best to honor your first, second and third choices for hotel accommodations. Please understand that availability depends on the order in which your team registers for participation into our tournament and also completes and returns all necessary paperwork. If we are unable to honor your first three hotel choices we will contact you directly to offer more options of availability before placing your team.
- 2. Complete Rooming List: Information must be completed for all individual persons on your team who will be needing hotel accommodations. Individual credit card information is needed to confirm and secure these reservations. Our Tournament Director is the only person who handles individual reservations and all information will be kept confidential.
- 3. Forward all information to your Tournament Director: Make sure all necessary information is complete in its entirety. Fax, E-mail or Mail to your Tournament Director (information is located below). Once received, all reservations will be confirmed and Final Confirmation of accommodations will be returned to your team contact. Please DO NOT contact the hotels directly for reservations, changes, additions or cancellations. In order to eliminate any errors in reservations we ask that this process be handled directly through our Tournament Director.
- 4. Questions: Contact your Tournament Director. BAHA4@ATT.NET

Hotel Preference

Please list Hotels in order of preference. Preferences are granted based on availability in the Georgetown Ice Center Tournaments block at the time your list is received. Please remember that the sizes of our blocks vary from weekend to weekend and your first choices may not always be available.
